

UNITED BY OUR DIFFERENCE

The Safety Professional: Getting heard, Gaining influence

Invitation. Your invite to WSP's thought leadership in safety series

Please RSVP to Catherine Devine at catherine.devine@wspgroup.com

www.wspenvironmental.com

BROWN
WRIGHT
STEIN
LAWYERS

The Safety Professional: Getting heard, Gaining influence

Genevieve Hawkins, Principal Director of EHS Strategy, Management & Risk at WSP, is delighted to invite a select group of individuals to our 2011 Thought Leadership in Safety series.

The series will comprise of three sessions during 2011. Each session will discuss and debate the question of, 'what are managers really hearing when we argue for change in the approach to safety?' The series is designed to build one session upon the other throughout the year and offer professional development for attendees.

Session 1: Developing the right safety strategy.

Session 2: Now I have a framework, how will I argue my case?

Session 3: What are ASX Boards thinking about in safety and will my strategy be heard?

Each session will be facilitated by a thought leader, along with a representative expert from WSP. Sessions will be running as breakfast round tables in Melbourne and Sydney. We aim to bring together senior health and safety professionals to engage in discussion and debate with business leaders.

GENEVIEVE HAWKINS

Genevieve works in the space of safety strategy, leadership and culture change, coaching organisations to achieve sustained improvement through full engagement. Genevieve has worked in the fields of health, injury management, workers compensation and OHS with extensive experience in both operational management and change management. Using this practical experience, Genevieve helps employers and employees look at simpler ways of achieving sustainable improvements. Genevieve is an experienced facilitator working across the country with large organisations in achieving sustainable change through consequence leadership.

Expert Facilitators

We have an impressive line-up of business thought leaders with various backgrounds, experiences and expertise to ensure an engaging session resulting in practical business-focussed outcomes.

Terry A'Hearn, WSP (UK), Director of Regulatory Innovation

Session 1: Developing the right safety strategy

Prior to WSP Terry held the role of acting CEO of the Victorian Environment Protection Authority. He has unique experience in regulatory reform and advising local and international businesses on how to extract commercial opportunity from the sustainability agenda. Terry now leads WSP's Regulatory Innovation, Climate Change & Sustainability Strategy Services globally, sharing his time between Australia and the UK. Terry's interactions with senior Government officials and international business leaders positions him well to offer insights into the minds of senior leaders during critical decision making.

Dr Paul Monk, AusThink, Director

Session 2: Now I have a framework, how will I argue my case?

Paul Monk is a founder, Director and Principal Consultant with AusThink Consulting. He is a polymath and widely known as a public intellectual. He worked for a number of years in intelligence, where he rose to head China analysis for the Defence Intelligence Organisation. Paul Monk may well be unequalled in Australia for intellectual breadth and depth, and his ability to rapidly apply that profound resource to challenges in the broad arena of human affairs. He has written four books including Thunder from the Silent Zone: Rethinking China (2005) and The West in a Nutshell (2009). He is a regular guest on ABC Radio and TV and writes frequently for the major media.

Chris Brown LLM GAICD FTIA, Brown Wright Stein Lawyers, Partner

Session 3: What are ASX Boards thinking about in safety and will my strategy be heard?

Chris is a partner at the esteemed firm of Brown Wright Stein Lawyers, where he has practised tax, corporate and commercial law for over 30 years. Chris has also held non-executive director roles for over 25 years. During this time he has been chairman and a member of audit, risk, remuneration, nomination and I.T. governance committees at organisations including Harvey Norman Holdings Limited, Rebel Sport Limited, Star Track Express and Tommee Tippee Australia. Chris is also active in the area of social justice for people with intellectual disability being the chairman of Windgap Foundation Limited.

When and Where

Each session will open for registration at 7.15am. The event will begin with a delicious breakfast followed by an engaging discussion with our thought leaders, finishing by 9.30am.

MELBOURNE: RACV City Club, Level 2, 501 Bourke Street

13 April 2011: Terry A'Hearn, WSP (UK), Director of Regulatory Innovation

Session 1: Developing the right safety strategy.

20 July 2011: Dr Paul Monk, AusThink, Director

Session 2: Now I have a framework, how will I argue my case?

12 Oct 2011: Chris Brown LL.M GAICD FTIA, Brown Wright Stein Lawyers, Partner

Session 3: What are ASX Boards thinking about in safety and will my strategy be heard?

SYDNEY: The Establishment, Level 3, 252 George St

14 April 2011: Terry A'Hearn, WSP (UK), Director of Regulatory Innovation

Session 1: Developing the right safety strategy.

21 July 2011: Dr Paul Monk, AusThink, Director

Session 2: Now I have a framework, how will I argue my case?

13 Oct 2011: Chris Brown LL.M GAICD FTIA, Brown Wright Stein Lawyers, Partner

Session 3: What are ASX Boards thinking about in safety and will my strategy be heard?

COST

The cost of the series will be $750 (plus GST) per person.

MORE INFORMATION

If you have any questions, or would like more information please contact:

Genevieve Hawkins on (03) 9412 5100 or at genevieve.hawkins@wspgroup.com

Catherine Devine on (03) 9412 5109 or at catherine.devine@wspgroup.com

To RSVP please confirm your chosen location to catherine.devine@wspgroup.com